The organizer shall as soon as possible, at least 1 week before the show, inform the judge in writing about the number of dogs to judge in what breeds. Only for very serious reasons such as serious illness, too few entries etc, can the assignment be annulled both by the judge and organizer. By signing this contract both the organizer and judge confirms that they will follow NKK's and FCI's regulations for Shows and Judges. The judge must judge according to the FCI breed standards and follow the FCI Code of Commitments for show judges.
