

World Championship OBEDIENCE

2. - 6. JULY | Oslofjord
Convention
Center

On the behalf of the Norwegian Kennel Club it is an honor to invite you all to the World Championship in Obedience 2025. It is the first time that the obedience championship is being held in Norway and we are looking forward to welcome you all.

The championship will be held in Sandefjord at Oslofjord Convention Center, which is approximately 30 minutes from Torp Airport, and about 2 hours from Gardermoen Airport. Link: <https://oslofjord.com/>

The championship will take place from 1st of July until 6th of July. The competition will be held outdoors on natural grass. Qualifications will start on Thursday 3rd of July. Details of schedule will be sent by e-mail and posted later. All information will be posted on our website which is linked further down. Please note that all important information regarding the competition will also be sent by e-mail to team leaders.

At the same place and time the Norwegian Kennel Club is also hosting their main event of the year. Two international CACIB shows, and one Nordic show. This weekend is all about dogs at Oslofjord Convention center.

Accommodation:

There are hotel apartments situated on the competition grounds. The accommodation is situated just a short stroll from the competition arena. Booking will not be open until later. But rest assured there will be enough room for everyone as Oslofjord convention center has over 9000 beds available. Link for booking will be sent to you when it is ready, and of course be published on our website.

The surrounding areas are highly suitable for walking the dogs, and we are confident that you will all enjoy your stay at Oslofjord Convention Center.

Information about the championship:

This year we are happy to inform you that FCI has opened for 120 dogs and owners to enter the qualification. Qualifications will be held over three days with 40 competitors each day. The 20 best competitors will advance to the final.

A team of six competitors from each country can be entered. Each country may appoint up to three reserves. Reserves will only be allowed to compete if there is room for this. Reserves will be appointed within one month before the championship, no later than
